

JOSEPH CHIOFFI

SENIOR COUNSEL
NEW YORK

☎ 212.980.3500

📠 212.508.2388

Joe's practice focuses on general commercial, corporate and compliance matters for clients in the luxury goods industries, including state privacy laws and the evolving legal issues regarding artificial intelligence. Joe has more than 30 years' experience as a practicing attorney, primarily in the areas of investment and real estate law, and has advised senior executives, business clients and boards of directors on complex legal matters.

CREDENTIALS

EDUCATION

- University of Connecticut School of Law, J.D., 1987
- University of Connecticut, B.A., magna cum laude, with Honors, 1983

BAR ADMISSIONS

- State Bar of New York
- State Bar of Connecticut

INSIGHTS

PUBLICATIONS | 12, OCTOBER 2023

UPCOMING COMPLIANCE DATE UNDER THE CORPORATE TRANSPARENCY ACT

The Corporate Transparency Act (CTA) requires certain U.S. and foreign corporations, LLCs and other entities created by filing a document with a secretary of state (a Reporting Company) to file a report with the Financial Crimes Enforcement Network (FinCEN) about its beneficial owners and...

PUBLICATIONS | 03, JULY 2023

ENFORCEMENT OF NEW CALIFORNIA'S PRIVACY REGULATIONS DELAYED

A California judge has made a last-minute decision to delay the enforcement of the California Privacy Rights Act (CPRA) regulations until March 29, 2024. The original plan was for the regulations to be enforced starting July 1.

PUBLICATIONS | 09, MARCH 2023

UPCOMING COMPLIANCE DATE UNDER THE CALIFORNIA PRIVACY RIGHTS ACT OF 2020

The California Privacy Rights Act of 2020 (CPRA) has introduced a new body of rules to ensure a higher level of protection of consumers' personal information. In a notable change, the CPRA also introduces new privacy rights for employees and extends data privacy protections to consumer...

AREAS OF FOCUS

PRACTICES

Corporate