

KATIE ALLGOOD

SPECIAL COUNSEL

NEW YORK

☎ 212.980.3500

📠 628.283.3652

Katie Allgood is Special Counsel at Bartko Pavia LLP in the Intellectual Property Practice. Katie concentrates her practice in intellectual property litigation and her professional background includes transactional work in the Biotech industry and several years of service as a public manager in municipal government.

CREDENTIALS

EDUCATION

- Baylor University – BA in Political Science & History
- Baylor University – Masters in Public Policy & Administration
- University of New Hampshire Franklin Pierce School of Law – JD with an Intellectual Property Certificate

BAR ADMISSIONS

- State Bar of Massachusetts

RECOGNITIONS

- UNH Franklin Pierce Moot Court – Trademarks Competition Team Richard D. Huff Distinguished Masters Student in Political Science Outstanding Undergraduate Scholarship Award

EXPERIENCE

- “Updates to Olympic Charter Rule 40: Impact of Name, Image, Likeness Changes for Tokyo Games” – ipwatchdog.com
- “Visigothic Law and Its Origins” – Undergraduate Research Journal of Baylor University, Volume 12, Number 1, Fall 2014

INSIGHTS

PRESS RELEASE | 14, MAY 2025

BARTKO PAVIA’S PATRICK M. RYAN OBTAINS $222 MILLION JURY VERDICT AGAINST WALMART

Press Contact

AREAS OF FOCUS

PRACTICES

Intellectual Property

Litigation