

JOIN US FOR A VIRTUAL TOWN HALL

Events

04, April 2025

The Judicial Fairness Coalition, in collaboration with the California Lawyers Association, is hosting a Virtual Town Hall on April 10 at 4:30 PM PT for an in-depth discussion on the intersection of law, politics, and ethics. This event will explore the importance of judicial independence, the ethical challenges judges face, and how the judiciary ensures fairness in an increasingly complex legal and political system.

Bartko Pavia partner Oliver Dunlap, a volunteer member of the Judicial Fairness Coalition, will moderate the discussion, featuring a prominent panel of judges. This panel includes Justice Tracie Brown of the California Court of Appeal, Judge Patrick Thompson of the San Francisco Superior Court, and retired Judge Andy Wick of the Sonoma County Superior Court.

This free and public event offers a unique opportunity to hear directly from judges and engage in an important dialogue about the role of the judiciary in our democracy.

Presented by the Judicial Fairness Coalition, in collaboration with the California Lawyers Association and the California Lawyer Foundation.
