

MARCO QUAZZO SPEAKS AT THE ANNUAL U.S. LAW CONFERENCE ON THE IMPACT OF COVID-19 ON LEASE OBLIGATIONS

Speaking Engagements

25, September 2020

Principal Marco Quazzo speaks at the Annual U.S. Law Conference covering “The Brave New World of Litigation Over the Impact of Covid-19 on Lease Obligations”. The seminar will focus on whether courts have granted, will grant and should grant tenants relief from rent and other lease obligations based on the pandemic. The discussion includes major pending cases, key court rulings, historical case precedents and applicable statutes and government orders that will inform and predict future litigation decisions.
