Alexandra Loutsenhizer is a Paralegal at Bartko Pavia LLP in the Litigation Practice Group, specializing in antitrust and unfair competition issues.

Prior to joining Bartko Pavia, Alexandra developed her paralegal skills while supporting complex securities, data-breach, consumer protection, and antitrust class action litigation. She then switched practice areas and gained experience in trust and estate planning, trust administration, and Probate law while she helped support and develop a small private practice in San Diego.

Before earning her paralegal certificate, Alexandra spent nearly a decade in the telecommunications industry as a legal program analyst and manager, specializing in intellectual property portfolio protection.
