

BENJAMIN K. RILEY SELECTED AS FELLOW IN LITIGATION COUNSEL OF AMERICA

Honors and Awards

21, April 2016

Scottsdale, Arizona – On April 21, 2016, San Francisco attorney Benjamin K. Riley, of Bartko, Zankel, Bunzel & Miller, was formally inducted into the Litigation Counsel of America at the LCA's 2016 Spring Conference & Celebration of Fellows. The Celebration of Fellows Gala was held at the Fairmont Scottsdale Princess in Arizona.

Mr. Riley has tried more than 25 cases to verdict and specializes in intellectual property litigation, including trade secret, patent, trademark, copyright and license litigation. Ben has received a California Lawyer of the Year award, served as President of the Northern California Chapter of the Association of Business Trial Lawyers, and was appointed by the judges of the Northern District of California as a lawyer representative to the Ninth Circuit. He attended Dartmouth and Berkeley School of Law.

The Litigation Counsel of America is a trial lawyer honorary society composed of less than one-half of one percent of American lawyers. Fellowship in the Litigation Counsel of America is highly selective and by invitation only. Fellows are selected based upon evaluations of excellence, effectiveness and accomplishment in litigation, and superior ethical reputation. The LCA seeks a high level of diversity in its composition and includes Women's and Diversity Initiatives. Established as a trial and appellate lawyer honorary society reflecting the American bar in the twenty-first century, the LCA represents the best in law among its membership.
