

JOSIAH JENKINS TO PRESENT ON CALIFORNIA WAGE & HOUR COMPLIANCE FOR SFEAC

Speaking Engagements

01, October 2026

Bartko Pavia Partner Josiah Jenkins will present The Devil Is in the Details: Navigating California Wage & Hour Compliance for the San Francisco Employers Advisory Council (SFEAC) on October 8, 2026.

California wage and hour laws are notoriously complex and continue to evolve as new legislation is enacted and courts interpret existing requirements. For employers, seemingly minor technical violations can create significant exposure, including potential class and representative actions.

During the program, Josiah will examine common pitfalls and lesser-known requirements under California wage and hour law that even experienced HR professionals may overlook. The presentation will address potential areas of exposure throughout the employee life cycle—from hiring and day-to-day employment practices through leave and termination—and provide practical guidance for identifying and addressing compliance concerns.

Attendees will learn how to:

- Identify under-the-radar wage and hour compliance issues that may create risk for California employers;
- Recognize potential areas of exposure throughout the employee life cycle; and
- Apply practical steps to strengthen compliance and address potential issues before they escalate.
