

ROB BUNZEL'S SERIES ON TRIAL LESSONS CONTINUES WITH A REVIEW OF "THE MAN TO SEE: EDWARD BENNETT WILLIAMS"

Publications

01, January 2019

By: Evan Thomas

San Francisco lawyer's lawyer Bill Edlund (Pillsbury Madison & Sutro 1956-1999 and Bartko Bunzel & Miller 1999-2016) died on Christmas Eve three years ago. Bill's daughter Cami gave our firm his legal library collected over 60+ years. The collection contains first-edition and hardbound biographies and histories of great trials, trial lawyers, judges and courts from England and the United States. This is the third installment for the Daily Journal of histories for trial lawyers from the shelves of law-related books left to my firm by Bill Edlund. The wisdom Bill curated is the basis for this series. This article concerns "The Man to See: Edward Bennett Williams: Ultimate Insider; Legendary Trial Lawyer," by Evan Thomas (Simon & Schuster, 1991), who was Newsweek's Washington bureau chief. Please click here to read the article in its entirety.

RELATED SERVICES

Litigation

RELATED PROFESSIONALS

ROBERT H. BUNZEL

General Counsel

📞 415.956.1900